

Wood -N- Strings DULCIMER SHOP

Locally
Handcrafted
Appalachian Dulcimers

by: Mike Clemmer

FREE DEMONSTRATIONS

Stringed Instrument Repair & Accessories
BOWED PSALTRIES • LAP HARPS
STRUM STICKS • MTN. BANJOS

Ban-Jammers • Hammer Dulcimers • Crafts

7645 E. Lamar Alexander Pkwy • P.O. Box 383
Townsend, TN 37882

Email: mike@clemmerdulcimer.com
www.clemmerdulcimer.com

865/ 448-6647

• Member of the Blount County Chamber of Commerce •

dul•ci•mer \ 'dəl-sə-mər\ n : a wire-stringed, fretted musical instrument with its origin in the Appalachian Mountains.

dulci -Latin meaning "sweet"
mellos -Greek meaning "song"

When Connie ask her husband Mike what he would do if he had a blank check, she was surprised at his answer. After talking and praying about it, Mike realized what he wanted ... his own shop for building and selling handcrafted mountain dulcimers. That was over a decade ago.

Mike's long sought dream-come-true has evolved from his life-long love of many types of music, playing, singing, and his reputation for repairing, trading, and buying instruments. It's truly been a labor of love.

Mike and Connie invite you to visit them in Townsend. Come and listen to the "sweet song" of the mountain dulcimers, handcrafted from wormy chestnut, walnut, cherry, butternut, and a variety of other woods. Come and enjoy God's mountains and His gift of music!